Wings Over the Smokies®

Hosted by NC GWRRA

The centerpiece of Chimney Rock State Park is the 535-million-year-old monolith rock for which the Park is named. When you reach the Rock, you'll be treated to 75-mile panoramic views of Hickory Nut Gorge. The Park is also home to a 400-foot waterfall, and there are great opportunities for wildlife viewing.

Chimney Rock State Park is located southeast of Asheville on the edge of the Blue Ridge Mountains. Chimney Rock is 27 miles from downtown Asheville.
